Dear Sir

Can you furnish me with a gold dollar of this years coinage? I know that they are scarce & that people have been speculating in them but you know that I would do nothing of the kind.

I wish it for my little grandchild & like to remember for one. I have given them to several others one an army grandchild in Boston, & I am particularly anxious to get one for this one.

Sorry that I did not see you at Encampment time
What a joyful reception it was I had delightful meeting with some of my boys
& enjoyed all I could
22 instead of 12 —
Hoping that you can

Dear Sir

Can you furnish me with a gold dollar of this years coinage? I know that they are scarce, & that people have been speculating in these, but you know that I would do nothing of the kind.

I wish it for my latest grandchild, who is named for me, I have given them to several others, one – an army grandchild, in Boston, & I am particularly anxious to get one for this wee one. Am sorry that I did not see you at Encampment times what a joyful occasion it was, I had delightful meetings with some of my "boys", & enjoyed as if I were 22 instead of 72.

Hoping that you can oblige me.

Yours Truly
Mary Morris' Husband
